Go Adventuring in The BLACK HILLS OF SOUTH DAKOTA

There's something about the Black Hills that sets them apart from any other vacationland in the West. Here rode and fought, and wrote their glowing passages into the history of the Old West, such colorful characters as Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane, Deadwood Dick, Preacher Smith and Poker Alice. Here White men fought it out with Red men for possession of a land that yielded . . . GOLD . . . and over the old gold trail from Deadwood lurched and rumbled the precious metal from the "diggings" of Deadwood Gulch.

Yes, it's a romantic, historic region, this Black Hills country. And enough of romance and the glamour of those wild, adventurous days still lingers amid the beauty of an unspoiled playground to satisfy anyone who seeks to live again those roaring times "when hearts were big and trigger fingers whimsical."

THE 250-MILE BLACK HILLS DETOUR

This renowned, all-expense motor trip is available to September 8—two days of the most fascinating sightseeing for only $24.75. You will see all the most famous points of interest including Mt. Rushmore's colossal sculptures, the "Needles," Mt. Coolidge, Harney Canyon, Sylvan Lake, State Game Lodge, Aisle of Pines, Rapid City, Deadwood Gulch, Lead and the Homestake Gold Mine, Mt. Roosevelt, and Spearfish Canyon. Only the Burlington enables you to make this Detour enroute to or from Yellowstone, Glacier, or the Pacific Northwest and California—at no additional rail fare.
