

Plan Your Western Vacation Now

Go West this summer and spend a glorious vacation in the Western Wonderlands. Get out in the open and gain new health in a vast unspoiled playground where the air is crisp, crystalline and scented with pine, eternal mountains tower up to glorious heights, and the sunshine is like a tonic to dwellers of the workaday world.

Bring your fly rod and your creel, if you and Izaak Walton see eye to eye. Tuck your boots into Western stirrups and ride the unfenced upland trails. Take your hiking boots if you are made of sturdier stuff; your niblick and brassie, in case you and golf are inseparable. Dance in the evenings, loaf by birch-log fires, motor the mountain roads, or just laze the sunlit hours away, at peace with the world. Do whatever you like . . . the West is yours to enjoy as you will. And there's a thousand ways and places for enjoying it.

Each summer countless numbers, young and old, find the West a perfect vacationland, with an infinitely varied choice of recreation regions. There's the strange "white magic" of Yellowstone National Park . . . Glacier National Park, the "Land of Shining Mountains" . . . boundless sunshine and scenic majesty of the Colorado Rockies . . . the glamorous Black Hills of South Dakota . . . romantic Sunny California . . . the great Pacific Northwest, Rainier National Park, and the Evergreen Playground . . . fascinating cruises to Alaska, America's own "foreign land."

Go West this summer and visit these great American playgrounds. Two weeks is ample time, if that's all you can spare . . . a month or longer is still better if you can arrange it. Summer excursion fares are low, and you'll enjoy every minute of your trip via Burlington air-conditioned trains.

Now is the time to plan your summer vacation. Any Burlington passenger representative will gladly help you plan your trip, providing you with all the facts, details and costs for a wonderful vacation in any of the Western Wonderlands.
