You Have a Vote

You, as a patron of the Katy, were represented at a meeting recently. It was a Staff Meeting—a meeting at which officials of every department of our railroad were in attendance, and each had his voice in the proceedings. It was not the first meeting of its kind on the Katy, nor will it be the last.

The railroad industry is not static. It is a dynamic industry—ever moving, constantly changing, consistently improving. Thus frequent meetings of officials to formulate policy, consider improvements and exchange ideas are necessary.

The merchandise we sell is intangible. It is service. There is no taking it on trial, or returning it because of inferior quality. You are using our “merchandise” as you read this. Either it is satisfactory or it is not. There is no opportunity, now, for us to replace it with merchandise of another kind. It is necessary that we plan for your comfort, safety and convenience before you need it!

So it is our endeavor to give you service—the best railroad service that money can buy—the highest quality in this type of “merchandise.” These Staff Meetings help us attain our goal.

When you make a suggestion to a Katy official it does not stop with him, but, if it has merit, it is carried to his superior, and eventually to a Staff Meeting. Thus, you, as a Katy patron, are represented at our meetings.

You have a vote!
